Friezland Summer Reading Challenge:

Weird and Wonderful Reading Photos!

At Friezland, we LOVE to read, and we hope you will all be enjoying your reading throughout the summer. You have heard, in assembly, all about the Space Race Reading Scheme at our local libraries and we hope you can take part, read your 6 books and win your prizes!

Here at school, we are setting you an additional challenge - to be photographed reading in a weird and wonderful place during the holidays.

You could be reading in a wonderful location, or nestled with your book in a weird place ... the more weird and wonderful, the better!

You can print your photo and bring it to school in September. Or, you can email it to info@friezland.oldham.sch.uk and write in the subject line "weird and wonderful reading".

Happy holidays, happy reading!

you will know.
