Create a map of an island that represents your life. Use knowledge of landforms and symbols to design your map. What would you need on this island to make life comfortable and safe? Make sure you include a key and make sure your map has grid references. Write down co-ordinates for the different landmarks.

PSCHE

The River Tame runs through some of Saddleworth. Go on a walk with a family member and sit next to the river where it is quiet and use your senses. Describe what you can see, what you can hear, what you feel. Take some deep breaths and maybe do some of our breathing exercises. Breathe out the colours of the rainbow. Breathe in for 5 and out for 6. How do you feel. Make sure you tell us once you have completed this.

Computing

Our Topic this half term is touch typing. You will spend a couple of sessions practising this in school, but touch typing is a skill that needs to be practised lots and lots if you ever want to be any good. Can you log into Purple Mash and continue with your touch-typing practice? Make sure you keep us updated as to what stage you are at? Maybe you could ask for one of your English tasks to be copied so you can take it home and type it up. Why not have a go at the Newspaper task above and typing it out.

Free Style

Have you got your own idea for a Geography project? We've had some children create Mine Craft models...Can you create your own city on Minecraft?
